WIFE MUST DECIDE

Sixth Wife of Farmer Can File Charge
If She Likes.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—The sixth wife of Leslie Snodgrass, South Bend, Ind., farmer-inventor, must reach a decision today as to whether she wishes to file a formal charge of bigamy against her husband or the local police will do it for her.

Snodgrass, who yesterday could not decide if the present Mrs. Snodgrass was his sixth or seventh wife, is being detained in jail here following complaint by his wife that he threatened to kill her.

During investigation of these charges it was alleged Snodgrass had married his present wife without the formality of a divorce from a previous wife.

LABOR TO WELCOME

President to be Mailed as Leader of World-Wide Democracy.

London, Dec. 19.—British labor will welcome President Wilson to London as the "leader of world-wide democracy," according to a message sent to him today by Arthur Henderson, in behalf of the Trades Union Congress. Mr. Henderson promised a reception of the highest order in the president's right for a league of nations and also for reduction of armaments and the suppression of secret treaties and secret diplomacy.

President and Mrs. Wilson are expected to arrive in London between Christmas and the first of January.

CLEMENCEAU'S VIEWS

Secretary of Nations Will Be Embodied in Peace Preliminaries.

Paris, Dec. 19.—Premier Clemenceau, in an address to the French association for a society of nations, declared today that the principle of a league of nations was certain to be embodied in the peace preliminaries.
